VOLUME 9 NUMBER 3

Timely Tidbits ...

Vote September 12

The City of Romulus will hold a primary election on Tuesday, September 12, to reduce the number of candidates running for City Council to 14. Voters will cast their ballots for not more than seven of the following candidates: Jeanine Wafer-Frison, William Wadsworth, Gwendolyn Sibert, John Ryznar, Deborah Romak, Jimmie Raspberry, Michael Prybyla, Ellis Pennington, Stanley Kreft, Tony Heimberger, Randolph Gear, Brooker Edwards, William Crova, Mary Collins, and Steven Bossidis.

Hunter Safety Class

Hunters who were born after 1960 or who plan to hunt out-of-state can fulfill Michigan's safety-class requirement by attending a two-day course to be conducted by Romulus police officers on Saturday, September 16, and Sunday, September 17. Applications for the class (to be hosted by the Romulus VFW) are available at the Police Department. For information, call Officer Tom Ellis: 941-8400.

Bike Safety Program

Romulus children age 10 and under are invited to attend a free bike safety/bike registration program to be conducted by Romulus Traffic Safety Officer Jerome Yoscovits on the playground at Metro Trailer Park (Van Born between Inkster and Middlebelt) from 12 to 4 p.m. on Wednesday, September 9. Participants will receive a license for their bicycle and a certificate for completing the course. For more information, contact Officer Yoscovits at 941-8718.

St. Aloysius Festival

The annual St. Aloysius Festival is set for September 1-4. For information, see pages 2 and 12.

Erratum

A front-page story in the August 18, 1995 issue of The Romulus News incorrectly referred to the recent St. Stephen Festival as the 4th annual event. Actually, the fund raiser was St. Stephen's 47th annual affair. □

City Council Creates New Ordinances To Restrict Train Noise, Traffic Tie-ups

A longtime dream of Romulus City Councilman Ellis Pennington came true on Monday, August 14, when he and his fellow Councilmen approved the second reading and final adoption of ordinances restricting the use of train whistles and limiting the amount of time that trains can obstruct traffic at railroad crossings.

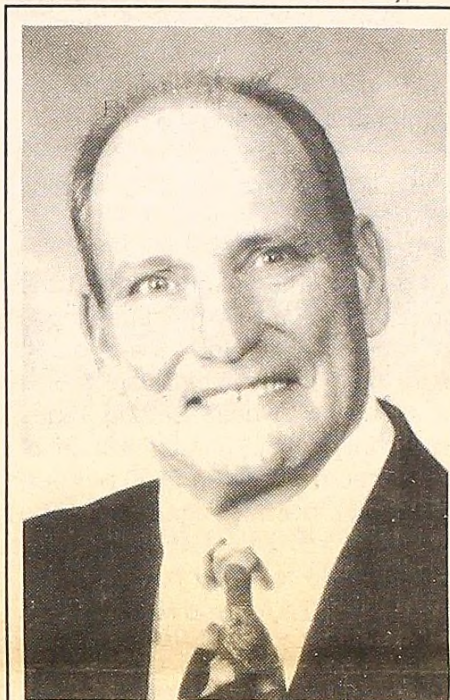

"For too long, the residents of Romulus – especially the senior citizens who live at the Romulus Tower – have been bothered by train whistles blasting at all hours of the night," Pennington told The Romulus News. "My colleagues and I spent years trying to get the railroads to address this and other complaints, but we never received much cooperation."

"Now," he continued, "our City attorney has helped us find a way to regulate some of the more annoying problems associated with these trains. It's a real victory for all of us."

The ordinance which addresses the noise problem states, in part, "No person shall blow or cause to be blown a steam or compressed air whistle or ring the bell of any locomotive within the City of Romulus for the purpose of signaling between sunset and sunrise unless mandated by state or federal regulations or there is an emergency," and sets a maximum penalty of $500 in fines and/or 90 days' imprisonment for violation.

The "traffic obstruction" ordinance states, in part, "It is unlawful for a railroad company to permit any of its trains to obstruct any vehicular traffic on public streets or highways for a period of more than five (5) minutes at any one time, except the obstruction shall not be considered a violation under the following circumstances: (1) If the train is continuously moving in the same direction at not less than 10 miles per hour for not longer than 7 minutes. (2) If the railroad can show that the incident occurred as a result of a verifiable accident, mechanical failure, or unsafe condition." Penalty for violation of the ordinance will be a maximum of $500 ($1,000 if the railroad or engineer is willfully, deliberately, and negligently blocking vehicular traffic) and/or 90 days' imprisonment.

Councilman Ellis Pennington

Both ordinances will go into effect upon their publication in The Romulus Roman, the City's legal newspaper, on September 7, 1995. □

RHS Reunion Draws 250+ Grads from '50s, '60s

"Reunion '95" organizing committee

On Saturday, August 26, more than 250 Romulus High School alumni gathered for a "Reunion '95" picnic at Elmer Johnson Park in Romulus. They came from as near as our own hometown and from as far as Chicago, Denver, and Atlanta . . . as far as New Jersey, California, and Washington.

Among the hordes of graduates from the 1950s and 1960s were Class of '47 alumna Leona Rackley-Edwards (who was, reportedly, the only black in that year's graduating class) and her sister, Class of '49 alumna Cathryn Rackley-Jackson (the first black cheerleader at Romulus High School).

Coming up with the idea for the reunion were Jeanine Wafer-Frison and Gilbert Beanum, who put together a committee of 11 members (including June Beanum-Carter, Ronald Buck, Earlene Buckley-Jones, Josie Buckley-Eatman, Diane Merriweather, Gloria Myricks-Williams, Jennette Nolen, Opal Nolen-McClendon, Leroy Pankey, Commodore Price, and Ezell Wooden) to organize the event.

"Our Reunion '95 was a huge success," beamed Wafer-Frison, who was justifiably proud of the hard work put forth by her fellow committee members. "In fact, we've already set the date for, and are beginning to work on, a Romulus High School Reunion '97. We hope to see you there!" □

Festival Fun at St. Aloysius

Is it really possible to have a good time while doing your part to benefit a worthy cause? You bet it is! When you attend the annual St. Aloysius Festival this Labor Day weekend, you'll have a chance to enjoy a variety of food and entertainment while helping to raise money for St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Everyone is invited to attend the Festival, which will be held at the Church (11280 Ozga Road, Romulus) on Friday, September 1, from 6 p.m. to 12 a.m.; Saturday, September 2, from 4 p.m. to 12 a.m.; Sunday, September 3, from 12 p.m. to 12 a.m.; and Monday, September 4, from 1 to 9 p.m.

Highlights of this year's St. Aloysius Festival include:

Las Vegas Games

For many Festival-goers, one of the biggest attractions is the Las Vegas Tent, where adults (age 18 and older) can try their luck at 15 blackjack tables and a "big six" wheel. Betting varies from a minimum of $1 to a maximum of $5 (maximum winnings: $500 per person per day). The Las Vegas Tent will be open Friday from 6 to 11:45 p.m.; Saturday from 4:30 to 11:45 p.m.; Sunday from 1 to 11:45 p.m.; and Monday from 1 to 8:45 p.m.

BINGO!

For die-hard BINGO! fans, a festival just isn't festive without a chance to indulge in their favorite pastime – and, luckily for them, the St. Aloysius Festival will again feature play throughout the entire weekend. Cards for the 50/50 games (half the income collected from each game is used for prize money) are two for a quarter per game. The BINGO! Tent will be open on Friday from 6 p.m. to 12 a.m.; Saturday from 4 p.m. to 12 a.m.; Sunday from 12 p.m. to 12 a.m.; and Monday from 1 to 9 p.m.

Raffles

Of course, the easiest way to try your luck is to invest in one or two (or three or four or . . .) raffle tickets. Ticket buyers can choose between the 50/50 Hourly Raffle ($1 tickets; cash prizes of half the money from each hour's sales) and the $2 Raffle (three large prizes: $3,000, $1,000, and $500). Better yet, since the proceeds from both raffles benefit such a worthy cause, why not buy tickets for each?

Entertainment

A variety of music performed by both new faces and old favorites will again be the backbone of the free entertainment at the St. Aloysius Festival. Be sure to come out and listen and/or dance to the music of the Klancnik Brothers (Friday, 7 to 11 p.m.), Heart & Soul (Saturday, 7 to 11 p.m.), Pan Franek, Zosia & the Polka Towners (Sunday, 2 to 6 p.m.), The Polka Towners Chapter II (Sunday, 7 to 11 p.m.), and the Larados (Monday, 3:30 to 8:30 p.m.).

Games/Arcade

Because the St. Aloysius Festival is meant to be a special event to be enjoyed by the entire community, those who put together the games and arcade section of the Festival try their best to offer a mixture of attractions for wide appeal. Both the young and young at heart will enjoy "checking out" the old favorites and new challenges offered this year.

Crafts/White Elephant/Frozen Yogurt

It takes a pole barn to house the craft sale's 20 eight-foot tables covered with everything from Christmas gifts to baked goods. And, since browsing among all 20 tables will take serious legwork, be sure to fortify yourself at the conveniently located frozen-yogurt stand! This is a great opportunity to get a jump on your holiday shopping!

Food . . .

Of course, there'll be plenty of delicious food! Back by popular demand will be a special Chinese dinner to be offered on Friday night from 6 to 8 p.m. And be sure to visit the Dining Room on Sunday between 12 and 6 p.m. to feast on homemade chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, stuffing, green beans, tomatoes, cucumbers, rolls, dessert, and more ($6 for adults; $3 for kids, and $1.50 for tots under five) – then come back Monday between 1 and 6 p.m. for spaghetti, salad, rolls, and Sunday's leftovers ($4 for adults, $2 for kids, and $1 for tots under five). For more "traditional" carnival fare, stop by Hamburger Villa to munch on hamburgers, hot dogs, kielbasa, pizza, chips, coffee, and pop. . . . and Drink

This year's Spirit Tent will serve chips, pretzels, pop, and Sharps in addition to beer, wine, and wine coolers. You must be at least 21 years old to purchase alcohol.

Don't Forget To Say "Thanks"

The repeated success of the St. Aloysius Festival is the result of a lot of hard work performed by many dedicated people. So while you're enjoying yourself, take some time to thank the many volunteers who make the fun happen, especially Festival chairman Richard Dick and the various activities chairmen: Bob and Pat Nightingale (advertising); Kris Moe (finance); Dave and Laura Coomer and Ron Arnett (Las Vegas games); Michele Koromos and Gary Luyben (BINGO!); Larry Hartz (games and arcade); Richard Dick and Chuck Noel ($2 raffle); Susan Hartz (hourly 50/50 raffle); Cindy Coak (entertainment); Dianne Zaleski and Karen Charkiewicz (crafts, white elephant, & frozen yogurt); Josephine Moleda and Vi Pawlowski (kitchen); Mary Ann Ryznar (dining room); Tang Denstedt (Chinese dinner); Steve Kertesz (Hamburger Villa); and Dennis and Nancy Farmer and Bill and Cathy Sovinski (spirit tent). □

Sassy Seniors*By Mary E. Clark*

Special thanks to Marilyn Hoffer, Senior Citizens Coordinator for the City of Romulus, and Barbara Schultz, Romulus Senior Center staff member, for contributing information to this issue's "Sassy Seniors" column. (For further information on events at the Romulus Senior Center, located at 36515 Bibbins, please call 942-6852.)

A Fond Farewell

The Romulus News would like to say a fond farewell to Romulus Senior Center staff member Barbara Schultz, who'll be leaving her post at the Center on Friday, September 1, in order to take up a full-time position at the 34th District Court. Barbara's always-pleasant manner made her a great favorite, both with seniors at the Center and with us here at "the little paper." She was truly a pleasure to work with, and she'll be sorely missed.

Good luck, Barbara, on your new job – and be sure to stay in touch!

Legal Aid

Legal Aid clinics offer free legal assistance in most civil matters (personal injury, worker's compensation, bankruptcy, and criminal matters not included) to Wayne County residents who are at least 60 years old. The next Legal Aid clinic is set for 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, September 5, at September Days Senior Center/Quirk School (46270 Ayres Street, Belleville). Seniors will be seen on a first-come, first-served basis (no appointment is necessary); everyone signed in by 10:30 a.m. will be seen. For more information, call (collect, if necessary) 313-964-5310.

Bowlers Sought for Senior League

Regular and substitute bowlers are still needed for the senior citizens bowling league that is now forming. You don't have to be a pro to join in the fun! For more information, call Marilyn at the Center: 942-6852.

Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum

Seniors will have their choice of visiting Greenfield Village or the Henry Ford Museum when the Center's van travels to Dearborn on Friday, September 15. A cost of $14 includes transportation and admission. Sign up at the Center.

Lunch Out

On Wednesday, September 13, the Senior Van will travel to Novi's Kyoto Restaurant, whose menu features fine Japanese cuisine. Cost of transportation is $1.50 (does not include lunch). Sign up at the Center.

Friday Shopping Trips

For a transportation fee of $1.50, Romulus seniors can ride the Center's van to Southland Mall on September 8, or to Southgate Shopping Center on September 22. Sign up at the Center.

Special Trips

Seniors interested in more information about these or other special trips planned by the Romulus Senior Center may contact Marilyn Hoffer at 942-6852.

- Sauder Farm and Craft Village –

Take a golden autumn afternoon to visit northwest Ohio's Sauder Village – a nonprofit, living-history complex established in 1976 to pay tribute to our American forefathers who tamed the wilderness. You'll visit cabins and shops built over a century ago by hearty ancestors, and hear their story told by historically costumed staff and working, skilled tradesmen. You'll also have a chance to enjoy meals prepared from old-time recipes (just like Grandma's!) at The Barn Restaurant. Cost of this one-day trip, which departs September 29, is just $47.

- Branson, Missouri – Visit the number-one motorcoach destination in the USA when Romulus seniors travel to Branson, Missouri, to take in an entertainment extravaganza! The $499 cost (based on double-occupancy rates) of this six-day/five-night tour includes round-trip motorcoach transportation; two nights' lodging enroute; three nights' lodging in Branson; lunch aboard the Branson Belle; two family-style dinners in Branson; and admission to the Par-a-dice Riverboard Casino, the Yakov Smirnoff Breakfast Show, the Ozark Discovery Imax Theatre, and five additional shows.

Flu Shots

Annapolis Hospital staff will visit the Romulus Senior Center on Wednesday, October 11, to administer flu vaccinations to people of all ages. No appointment is necessary; shots will be given on a first-come, first-served basis from 8 a.m. to noon. Shot recipients must sign a consent form prior to vaccination. Cost is $5.

Free Blood-pressure Screening

Romulus seniors can have their blood pressure checked by Community Emergency Medical Service (CEMS), free of charge, at the Romulus Senior Center on the first Monday (second Monday if the first falls on a holiday) of every month from 1 to 2 p.m. No appointment is necessary. □
